

Professional Biography

Dr. Patrick J. McQueeney, Ed.D.

---

Superintendent of Schools | Educational Leader | Advocate for Student Achievement and Faculty Development

Dr. Patrick J. McQueeney is a dedicated and innovative educational professional with over 20 years of experience in leading and improving public school districts. He is currently the Superintendent of Schools for the Westwood Regional School District in New Jersey, overseeing operations for a comprehensive K-12 district. Known for his forward-thinking and communicative leadership style, Dr. McQueeney is committed to fostering high levels of student achievement and supporting the professional growth of his faculty.

Dr. McQueeney has a proven track record of improving school systems through the implementation of modern technologies and practices that boost efficiency and effectiveness. He has led the restructuring of leadership teams, introduced innovative software solutions to streamline operations, and fostered a culture of transparency within Board of Education governance. Additionally, Dr. McQueeney has actively worked to expand special education programs, ensuring that all students have access to quality learning opportunities.

Prior to his current role, Dr. McQueeney served as Superintendent of Schools and Director of Curriculum, Instruction, and Professional Development for the Wanaque Borough Public Schools, and as Acting/Interim Superintendent for Sparta Township Public Schools. His leadership roles have included Assistant Superintendent, Principal, and Vice Principal, where he consistently worked to create an engaging and effective learning environment. His extensive experience in curriculum development, grant facilitation, and educational technology integration has made him a respected figure in the education sector.

As a founding member of the New Jersey Association for Educational Leadership (NJAEEL), Dr. McQueeney is deeply involved in promoting strong, visionary leadership across New Jersey's public schools. NJAEEL is an organization dedicated to enhancing leadership capacity through professional development, collaboration, and the sharing of best practices among educational leaders. The organization focuses on empowering school administrators to drive positive change and improve student outcomes throughout the state.

Dr. McQueeney holds an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership and an M.B.A. from Centenary University. He also has an M.S. in Materials Engineering from Rutgers University and a B.S. in Physical Science from Rowan University. His passion for education and commitment to excellence continue to shape the future of the schools he leads.